HEADACHES

Thousands of men and women suffer from headaches every day. Other women suffer from headaches every week or every month, and still others have headaches occasionally, but not at regular intervals. The cause of many of these headaches, and the most common one, is the result of a slight but persistent strain on the muscles of the neck and head.
This strain is caused by the position of the head and neck while sitting at a desk or writing. The result is a tension headache, which is again very common. If you suffer from this kind of headache, the result of a strain on the muscles of the neck and head, the best remedy is to use the Kinpo Headache Tablets. These tablets are made of the most powerful and reliable of all drugs, and they will relieve your headache in a few minutes. You can get them at all drug stores. Ask for Kinpo Headache Tablets. At all drug stores.

GEN. MORRIS AGREES TO HEAD PARADE

Formally Accepts Grand Marshalship of G. A. R. Event September 29.

DISTINGUISHED ARMY
OFFICERS WILL ASSIST

Naval Vessels Detailed Here for Period of Encampment—Bluejackets to Have Dress Parade.

Major Gen. Nelson A. Miles, grand marshal of the G. A. R. parade held September 29, has formally accepted that honor in a letter received today by William F. Gude, chairman of the citizens' G. A. R. committee.

Gen. Miles is busy today cleaning up the few remaining details of the program for the parade, which probably will be submitted to the executive committee, which is to meet at the Chamber of Commerce, tomorrow at noon.
At this meeting all of the subcommittee reports will be received and arrangements perfected for all departments of the G. A. R. celebration.

Admiral George Newton notified the citizens' committee today that Commander-in-Chief Palmer will arrive in Washington without fail Monday, September 27, and that he approves of all arrangements that have been made by the local citizens' committee and the Department of the Potomac for the G. A. R. encampment.

Army Officers to Participate.

Acceptances by a number of distinguished army officers and their assistants living in Washington of an invitation to ride at the head of the parade as assistant marshals were received today by Gen. Miles. All plans for the big parade are said to be working out nicely.

Dr. Frank E. Gibson, chairman of the entertainment committee, was notified today by Commander W. W. Galbraith, who has been in charge of the participation by the Navy Department in the celebration, that plans for bringing naval vessels to the city for the encampment are being worked out satisfactorily.

The dress parade on the White Lot following the G. A. R. parade is to be by bluejackets. The Dolphin, Sylph and Mayflower have been assigned to report here during the inspection of the Three Torpedo boats, the Barney, Balley and Hiddle, have been similarly detailed. Has not yet been determined which submarine will be ordered here.

Where They Will Anchor.

Dr. Gibson said today that it is the intention of the committee to have these vessels anchored in midstream between the Long bridge and the Aqueduct bridge so that they will be conveniently accessible to all who wish to visit them.

Mrs. Lottie Johnson, who is to be the official hostess of the Ladies of the Grand Army, by virtue of her appointment by Chairman Gude of the citizens' committee as chairman of the ladies' committee, is making extensive preparations for the entertainment of the veterans and their families.

Col. John McElroy has suggested, and Chairman Gude has endorsed the proposal, that local dignitaries follow the veterans in the parade, and that the custom that has been observed at previous encampments and invite the visiting dignitaries among the G. A. R. to use the local pulpits the Sunday when the encampment here ends.

Prominent Speakers Will Address

Army and Navy Men, Who Will Swap Experiences.

Campfires for the entertainment of the veterans during the encampment week have been arranged by Col.
Charles C. Royce, who has been promi-nently identified with the Grand Army here since the close of the war, and has held some of the highest offices in the organization.

These campfires are to be held in the large halls of Camp Matthews G. Emery building, 1st and B streets northwest, on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings during the G. A. R. week.

They will consist of addresses by past national officers of the G. A. R. and other prominent veterans who are well known nationally as patriotic orators.
These addresses will be interspersed with music and recitations. Opportunity will also be given for short voluntary talks, campfire stories and reminiscences.

Wednesday evening, September 29, there will be held also a naval campfire, in the language of the "old salt," "dog watch," at which some of those who paced the quarterdeck or swung their hammocks will have opportunity to tell of their success in putting down the rebellion.

These who will make the principal speeches at the campfires are:
Wednesday, September 29—Past Commander-in-Chief James T. Tanner of Chicago, Past Commander-in-Chief James E. Gillman of Boston, Mr. Mary E. Jamerson, national president of the Ladies of the Grand Army, and Commander Charles O. Brown, former chief bugler of the 3d Ohio Cavalry, who is now a prominent minister in Chicago.

Thursday, September 30—Past Commander-in-Chief Charles E. Burton of Missouri, Eli Torrance of Minnesota, Past Commander-in-Chief of the Grand Army, and Past Commander-in-Chief of the Grand Army, and Past Commander-in-Chief of the Grand Army, and Past Commander-in-Chief of the Grand Army.

Friday, October 1—Past Commander-in-Chief Thomas J. Stewart of Pennsylvania, now adjutant general of the state; Gen. J. Warren Keifer of Ohio and the senior vice commander-in-chief W. F. Connor of Texas.

Campfire Committees.

The committee on campfires consists of C. C. Royce, chairman; Harrison Dingman, Newton M. Brooks, James Tanner, George E. Conner, Solomon E. Faunce, Thomas S. Hopkins, A. H. G.
Richardson, Newton Ferree and Jerome B. Burke.

Arrested on Girl's Charges.

Charged with a serious offense preferred by a fifteen-year-old girl, William Randall, twenty-five years old, who said he resides at 3724 Northampton street, was arrested this afternoon by Detectives Hughlett and Goggins.

Injunction Halts Speech of President of Negro Baptist Convention.

DELEGATES HOOT DOWN
NEW PRESIDING OFFICER

Gives Up Gavel When Seized by Coastguards and Pulled From Platform.

CHICAGO, September 9.—A police guard and the serving of an injunction were followed by scenes of disorder were unlooked for developments at today's session of the Negro National Baptist convention.

The injunction was served on Rev. E.
C. Morris of Mosley, Mo., president of the convention, who is restraining him from speaking at the convention or taking any other active part in the proceedings. The trouble began at the first session yesterday. Mr. Morris ruled out of order a motion to consider a new charter for the organization. An appeal from the ruling carried and Mr.
Morris and his adherents left the hall and held a separate meeting at a nearby church.

Injunction Stops Speech.

Today he returned and had been addressing the delegates for half an hour when the restraining order was served. It was obtained by Rev. E. P.
Jones, Helena, Ark.; R. H. Boyd and C. J. Boyd. Mr. Jones was the temporary chairman chosen yesterday after Mr. Morris left the meeting. C. J.
Boyd is manager of the publishing house of the convention at Cincinnati.

The meeting grew more disorderly when Jones took the gavel. Delegates all over the hall were shouting: "Put Jones out!" "We want Morris!"

Morris left the hall and 200 of his followers followed him. Most of the remaining delegates left their chairs, and many of them began to throw things at the speaker's platform. Jones was pounding for order in vain. Ten policemen under a lieutenant appeared and mingled with the crowd.

Seized by Coat Tails.

Some seized Jones by his coat tails and pulled him backward. He fell to his knees, but was not hurt. Finally he abandoned his attempt to preside and mingled with the crowd in front.
Cries of "Oh, Lord help us!" could be heard from the audience.

Suddenly Jones pointed at a delegate and shouted "Arrest that man. He threatened my life. The man indicated the grasp of the policeman nearest him and escaped, but a number of others were ejected. Rev. C. T. Walker of Augusta, Ga., next took the place and tried to quiet the delegates.

VOICES GOOD WILL TO G. A. R.

Former Confederate Soldier Sorry He Cannot Attend Encampment.

Still further showing the spirit of fraternity and good will that the Confederate Veterans feel toward the G.
A. R. in the celebration of this semi-centennial, W. L. McKay, signing himself "a post-bellum colonel," late corporal of Company 1, 18th Tennessee Infantry, who is adjutant general and chief of staff of the Tennessee division, United Confederate Veterans, has written to the G. A. R. citizens' committee as follows:

"The pleasure I have derived from the cordial invitation you have given me to attend the forty-ninth encampment and the fortieth anniversary of the grand review, Grand Army of the Republic, could be exceeded only by the pleasure I am sure it would give me to attend and participate in the activities of this glorious occasion.

"I appreciate the neighborly spirit and fraternity existing now between the opposing forces of fifty years ago, and would enjoy meeting and mingling in friendly intercourse with the surviving civilian. The president, E. B. Butler, owing to the good manliness of some boy in blue at the battle of Murfreesboro, Tenn., I am physically unable to walk so far at this time, but send my best wishes for a successful encampment, and my regrets that I am unable to be with you."

PRESIDENT TO LAY STONE.

Will Take Part in the Arlington

Memorial Ceremony.

Col. John McElroy, acting commander of the Department of Potomac and host of the G. A. R. reunion, announced today that some mistaken information had been published regarding the exercises at the laying of the corner stone of the Arlington Memorial. These exercises are to be held Friday, October 1, at 2:30 o'clock.

President Wilson is to lay the corner stone, but has not promised to make an address. The president is Mr. David L. Palmer will be present and make a speech.

The invitation to the President to officialize at this ceremony was not extended by the Grand Army, but by the Arlington Memorial Association. The program for these exercises at Arlington are now being arranged at the War Department.

Medal of Honor Women to Meet.

The annual convention of the Women of the Medal of Honor Legion will be held in Washington, Tuesday, September 28, at 2 p.m., and Wednesday, September 29, at 10 o'clock a.m. in the New Willard Hotel, where their headquarters are to be located.

It is expected that the convention will be the largest ever held by this organization. The organization is composed of the wives and daughters of men who won the medal of honor for special gallantry in action during the Civil War. The president is Mrs. A. A.
Forman and the secretary, Mrs. Elizabeth McKee, 3416 North 9th street, Philadelphia, Pa.

Equals World's Altitude Record.

PARIS, September 9.—The French monoplaneist, E. A. Demars, it was announced last night, has equaled the world's altitude record of 6,600 meters (21,688 feet) established by the German airman, Otto Linnemann, in an aeroplane at Johannisthal July 9, 1914.
